

Website Project Questionnaire: Goodbye Maeve/ Hello Planet Creature

You have been invited to take part in a project creating a website for use by PTSS and other children. In order for us to make a good design for primary children, and to check later what parts have been useful to which sorts of children, we need some basic information and ideas. Could you answer the following questions as best you can? This is a questionnaire, not a test. There are no “right” or “wrong” answers, and it will be most helpful if you put down exactly what you think inside yourself.

I About you

Your computer ID _____ Your age _____ Your grade _____ Boy or girl? _____

How well did you know Maeve? (Put an X somewhere on the line)

Not at all _____ Like family
0 _____ 5 _____ 10

How much have you found yourself thinking about Maeve since she died last year?

(Put an X somewhere on the line)

Never _____ Every day
0 _____ 5 _____ 10

II What do you think about these ideas for the “Goodbye” section of the website?

(Number each idea in the order of how important you think it would be, with 1 being most important)

Photos of Maeve _____

Maeve’s stories and drawings _____

Children’s cat drawings and “memories” about Maeve _____

Video interviews of children talking about Maeve _____

Videos from Maeve’s goodbye ceremonies _____

A place to send private “letters” to Maeve _____

Please tell us some other things you think might be good to include in the “goodbye” part of the website

III The idea of the “Planet Creature” part of the website is to create an imaginary world from Maeve’s drawings, and to create game stories within this imaginary world, that might be helpful for any children feeling sad or lost. Have you any ideas for difficult situations we should include, or things in life you have found helpful at sad or confusing times? (Write on the back if you need more room).

Difficult situations:

Things that can be helpful:

Thanks for your ideas!! From the Bumbletown Consulting Group